LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

Poor Turkeys.

THANKSGIVING day.

SKATING rink to-night.

BAND concert at Emma Square tonight.

PUBLIC holiday to-morrow. Hawa-ian Independence day.

Sir Moses Montefiore, the centenarian, has three hundred and eleven grandchildren.

WAR was declared against turkey this morning. It looks as if turkey would get the worst of it.

His Ex. John M. Kapena has been confined to the house with gout, but now he is able to go out.

A GOOD many of the stores were closed soon after ten o'clock, and the streets presented a somewhat deserted appearance.

NEWSPAPER reporters will always be found fault with until they can write up an account of a street fight that will please the man who gets licked.

WE heard a big noise on Merchant street about half-past one o'clock, this afternoon, as if a menagerie had got loose. It was the Fat Boy on a rampage.

TO-MORROW evening at the Waikiki Church, occurs the opening of the new cabinet organ. A good programme has been prepared, and a large audience is expected.

THE James Makee leaves to-morrow morning at nine o'clock for Waialua, Waianae and Kauai. The Post Office will be open from 8 o'clock to 8.30 to receive mail.

A MEETING of Democrats was held at the Hawaiian Hotel last evening.
A committee was formed, and a public demonstration will probably be held some time next week.

FOR the past three days people living on Emma and King streets have been subjected to the hardship of having the water shut off, and that without notice having been given.

AT Lexington, Kentucky, Nov.
11th, Maud S., queen of the turf, made the fastest time on record.
Time—quarter, 32½; half, 1.04; three-quarters, 1.37; mile, 2.09½.

IT is the song, "Aloha Oe," which was composed by H. R. H. Princess Liliuokalani, and not "Hooheho" as stated by us yesterday. The mistake was noticed too late for correction.

WE notice that on Monday next, Auctioneer Adams will sell the residence of the late Simon Kaai at Palama. It is to be hoped that the first thing the purchaser will do, will be to fix those dangerous holes on the road in front of the house.

BATHERS had better be careful.
This morning a shark eight feet long came up and took a dead fish off the Marine Railway track where it enters the water.

THE way trees are being trimmed in Nuanu Valley is disgraceful. A lot of inexperienced men are put to work on them and they slash away anyhow, instead of trimming them properly.

THE Hawaiian Carriage Manufacturing Co. shipped by the steamer Iwalani yesterday for Mr. Sam Parker, a large wagon for carrying sugar cane, etc., at Paauhau, Hamakua.

THE BULLETIN staff returns thanks to Mr. Horn for a bountiful supply of his famous mince pies. They have been in great demand all day, and may well be, for they are hard to beat.

YESTERDAY Mr. J. Hopper killed a turkey of his own rearing. After being dressed it weighed 15½ pounds, and measured 8½ inches across the breast. What time shall we all come to dinner, Mr. Hopper?

FLEAS, roaches, flies, etc., can be found in abundance on these islands, and are very annoying and troublesome. But you will find if you use "Buhach," for which preparation Benson, Smith & Co. have just been appointed agents in these islands, these insects cannot stand it and are obliged to roll over and give up the ghost.

THAT's a fact, our neighbor the Gazette is right, it would be a good idea to put up one or two lamp posts along the Pauoa Valley Road. Of course there is a deal of traffic up that road, still our suggestion that one be placed in the lane leading to Iolani College should not be lost sight of.

WHILE the Hon. Chas. R. Bishop and Mr. S. M. Damon were on Molokai last week, they witnessed a very pretty sight. It was a herd of deer, among them three very fine bucks with beautiful horns. They were so wild that as soon as they saw the gentlemen they scampered off like lightning. The first ones were taken to that island by Kamehameha the Fifth.

Messrs. Ehlers & Co. give notice in our issue of to-day that they will hold their usual Christmas cash sale, commencing on the first day of December, and continuing throughout the month. They will offer their splendid stock in its entirety, without reserve, at cost. Now is the time to secure genuine bargains by paying cash. There is bound to be a big rush for these goods, so see that you attend early.

HERE's the biggest thing yet offered to the public. On Saturday next Mr. Chas. J. Fishel will commence a great silver gift sale at his popular store, corner of Hotel and Fort streets. To anyone purchasing $2.50 worth of goods a silver present will be given, and to purchasers of $1 worth or more of goods, a toy present will be given.
It is well-known what a stock he carries and this year he has excelled all previous efforts. Don't fail to attend early and often.

A FIRE started in a shed close to Wilder's old railway track, near the salt beds, South street this morning.
The shed is only about a yard from the house to which it belongs, and there being a good many houses in that quarter the fire was a threatening one at first. It was, however, put out by the occupants of the house, assisted by neighbors, without an alarm being given. A bale of hay, sundry bags and other truck were blazing, but a few buckets of water prevented the flames from spreading. It is supposed the fire was started by a small boy playing with matches.

ABOUT 40 members of the Honolulu Rifles were measured Tuesday for their new uniforms. Those who could not attend that evening are requested to call at Mr. S.
Roth's store on Fort street any day between 12 and 1 o'clock before the S. S. Alameda leaves. The uniform will be the same as worn by the U.
S. Artillery, consisting of dark blue coat with red facings, light blue pants with red stripe; white gork helmet, white cross and waist belts.

Capt. Aldrich and the first and second lieutenants have charge of the matter.

THE members of the Gleaners' Society extend a general invitation to the public to visit them at the parlors of Fort St. Church on Saturday the 29th, between the hours of two and five, P. M. Refreshments will be provided and fancy articles made by members of the society will be offered for sale. Come and encourage by your presence and aid, the girls of this society, in the good work in which they are engaged.
No admission fee will be charged.

The benefit of advertising has just been strikingly illustrated in this office. Last evening the manager of this paper was ordered by telephone to insert an advertisement announcing the loss of a black Newfoundland dog. This forenoon, after the advertisement had been put in type, the lost dog entered the office and lay down in front of the counter, remaining there until his owner was summoned and identified him. The animal is the property of a gentleman connected with the Inter-Island Steamship line. It is strange the brute should have come where he did instead of going home, although it is a fresh evidence of the sagacity of the canine species that he should have come to the fountain of local intelligence when he discovered he was a lost dog.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

recently been appointed agents in
